ABOUT THE NAPA VALLEY CHORALE

The Napa Valley Chorale, founded in 1963, is the Napa Valley's intergenerational, auditioned community chorus and includes singers ranging from high school age to senior citizens who join together because of their love of singing and their passion for choral music. Recent performances have included such great major works as Handel's Messiah and Coronation Anthems, Mozart's Requiem, Liebeslieder Waltzer by Brahms, Puccini's Messa di Gloria, Respighi's Laud to the Nativity, and Carl Orff's Carmina Burana. Artistic Director Jan Lanterman has conducted the Napa Valley Chorale since 1984. Vintage High School Director of Choral Activities, Mark Teeters, began working with the Chorale in 2001; and accompanist Ellen Patterson joined the artistic staff in 2002. The Napa Valley Chorale's spring concert on June 4, 2005, will feature Brahms' Neue Liebeslieder Waltzer and a collection of early American hymns and spirituals.
